

James E. Monroe

February 23, 2006

BROWNVILLE, N.Y. -- James E. Monroe, age 77, of Franklin St., Brownville, died at 6:53 a.m. at the Samaritan Medical Center emergency room on Thursday.

He was born December 14, 1928 in Carthage, N.Y. the son of Clifford and Blanche Flynn Monroe. He graduated from Augustinian Academy in Carthage.

He served in the Naval Ready Reserve from September 1949 until October of 1950. He married Beverly A. Alton August 16, 1950 in Philadelphia, N.Y. The couple lived in Philadelphia until moving to Brownville several years ago.

He was employed from 1950-52 at St. Regis Paper as a Pulp Tester; he was then employed at N.Y. Air Brake as a Timekeeper from 1952 until 1958. He was a Druggist at Grant Drug in Watertown from 1958 until his retirement in June of 1996.

He was a communicant of Immaculate Conception Church of Brownville where he was in the Choir and Finance Committee, a 4th Degree K of C. Knight and Color Guard Captain, A member of Philadelphia American Legion Robert Markwick Post 798, an active member of Original Yanks Drum and Bugle Corps, an also a member of Musicians Union.

He is survived by his wife Beverly and three daughters, Mrs. Michael Cathy Trembly of Brownville, Joan M. Monroe of Brownville and Mrs. Timothy Cheri Connor of Brownville. Grandchildren –Carrie Trembly Ross of Brownville, James Trembly of Syracuse, and Daniel Connor and Colleen Connor both of Brownville. A great grand daughter Cayla Ross of Brownville. He has a sister Anne Carpenter of Arizona and nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by a brother Joseph Monroe and a sister Phyllis Jackson.

A funeral mass will be held Saturday 11:00 a.m. at Immaculate Conception Church, Brownville with Fr. Kevin O'Brien, pastor officiating. Burial will be in the spring at Brownville Cemetery. Calling hours will be Friday from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. at Johnson Funeral Home, Dexter.

Donations may be made to Immaculate Conception Church, Brownville or the Brownville First Responders.

Obit courtesy of newzjunkie www.newzjunkie.com

Information provided by Johnson Funeral Home, 237 William St., Dexter, NY. 639-6257